The State Educational Officer has brought to the notice of Government that Shri Mollera Chengappa Madappa, Assistant Teacher, Government Middle School, Sanivarsanthe, tampered with certain entries in his Secondary School Leaving Certificate and that on inquiry as he admitted his fault, he was suspended from service with effect from 28-8-1954. The S.E.O. states that in the meantime, Shri Mollera Chengappa Madappa has submitted his resignation and that as the teacher is an young man, the S.E.O is of opinion that the teacher may be removed from service with effect from the forenoon of 28-8-1954 so that he can eke out his living elsewhere.

As Shri M.C.Madappa has since tendered his resignation, perhaps his resignation may be accepted and the S.E.O directed to issue the necessary orders.

Sir,

As my father is not keeping good health for last few months there is no body to look after property at Andagove village and as a consequence of this the property is being neglected to the utter detriment of our interest. Therefore, I hereby tender my resignation to my post as teacher so that I may be able to be at home and look after my properties. Hence, I humbly beg to request you to be good enough to accept my resignation with immediate effect.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
